

Radio Liberty/Free Europe aims to spread the values of democracy and citizens

Radio Svoboda Europe aims to spread the values of democracy and civil society addressing the audience in those countries in which press freedom is either limited or prohibited by the authorities or has not yet become the norm of society. Radio journalists Svoboda Europe provide to society what it cannot know from the local media. It is the news without censorship reasoned and responsible exchange of opinions open and honest discussion

Link to article: Radio Liberty/Free Europe aims to spread the values of democracy and citizens